

Article II Proposal with Incorporated Amendments

1 Article II Purposes and Covenant

2 Section C-2.1. Purposes.

3 The Unitarian Universalist Association will devote its resources to and use its organizational 4 powers for religious, educational, and humanitarian purposes. Its primary purposes are 5 to assist congregations in their vital ministries, support and train leaders both lay and 6 professional, to foster lifelong faith formation and spiritual development, to heal historic injustices, to support and encourage the creation of new Unitarian Universalist communities, and to advance our
7 Unitarian Universalist values in the world.

8 The purpose of the Unitarian Universalist Association is to actively engage its members in the 9 transformation of the world through liberating Love.

10 Section C-2.2. Values and Covenant.

11 As Unitarian Universalists, we covenant, congregation-to-congregation and through our 12 association, to support and assist one another in our ministries. We draw from our heritages of 13 freedom, reason, hope, and courage, building on the foundation of love.

14 Love is the power that holds us together and is at the center of our shared values. We are 15 accountable to one another for doing the work of living our shared values through the spiritual 16 discipline of Love.

17 Inseparable from one another, these shared values are:

18 Image Description: This image is of a chalice with an overlay of the word love over the flame,
19 with six outstretched arms that create a circle around each of the core values and form a six
20 petal flower shape. Each arm is a different color and clockwise they are: Interdependence
21 (Orange), Equity (Red), Transformation (Purple), Pluralism Dark Blue), Generosity (Teal), and 22 Justice (Yellow).

23 Interdependence. We honor the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
24 With humility and reverence, we covenant to protect Earth and all beings from exploitation,
25 creating and nurturing sustainable relationships of repair, mutuality,
26 and justice.

27 Pluralism. We celebrate that we are all sacred beings diverse in culture, experience, and 28 theology.
29 We covenant to learn from one another in our free and responsible search for truth and 30 meaning. We embrace our differences and commonalities with Love, curiosity, and respect.

31 Justice. We work to be diverse multicultural Beloved Communities where all thrive.
32 We covenant to dismantle racism and all forms of systemic oppression. We support the use of 33 inclusive democratic processes to make decisions within our congregation and the society at large.

34 Transformation. We adapt to the changing world.
35 We covenant to collectively transform and grow spiritually and ethically. Openness to change
36 is fundamental to our Unitarian and Universalist heritages, never complete and never perfect.

37 Generosity. We cultivate a spirit of gratitude and hope.
38 We covenant to freely and compassionately share our faith, presence, and resources. Our 39 generosity connects us to one another in relationships of interdependence and mutuality.

40 Equity. We declare that every person has the right to flourish with inherent dignity and 41 worthiness.
42 We covenant to use our time, wisdom, attention, and money to build and sustain fully 43 accessible and inclusive communities.

44 Section C-2.3. Inspirations.

45 As Unitarian Universalists, we proclaim that direct experiences of transcending mystery and wonder are a primary source of inspiration. These experiences open our hearts, renew our spirits, and transform our lives. We draw upon, and are inspired by, sacred, secular, and scientific understandings
46 that help us make meaning and live into our values. We respect the histories, contexts, and cultures in which 47 these understandings were created and are currently practiced. These sources ground us and sustain us in 48 ordinary, difficult, and joyous times. Grateful for the experiences that move us, aware of the religious ancestries we inherit, and enlivened by the 49 diversity which enriches our faith, we are called to ever deepen and expand our wisdom.

50 Section C-2.4. Inclusion.

51 Systems of power, privilege, and oppression have traditionally created barriers for persons
52 and groups with particular identities, ages, abilities, and histories. We pledge to replace 53 such barriers with ever-widening circles of solidarity and mutual respect. We strive to be 54 an association of congregations that truly welcome all persons who share our values. We 55 commit to being an association of congregations that empowers and enhances everyone's 56 participation, especially those with historically marginalized identities.

57 Section C-2.5. Freedom of belief.

58 Congregational freedom and the individual's right of conscience are central to our Unitarian
59 Universalist heritage.
60 Congregations may establish statements of purpose, covenants, and bonds of union so long 61 as they do not require that members adhere to a particular creed.
